

The White Villa is your home away from home - with Egyptian hospitality, luxury accommodation and international cuisine. All together will give you the peace and tranquility you need for a relaxing holiday with or without the family. We are located on the outskirts of Hurghada, the foremost tourist resort of the Red Sea coast and international centre for aquatic sports.

The White Villa guest house is very distinctive and unique within Hurghada and is equipped with all the modern amenities to make your visit enjoyable. The guest house has been designed to ensure you receive an all round relaxing holiday, so therefore nearly every comfort has been taken care of.

Sample some of the local cuisine in our relaxing dining room, sit by the pool and enjoy a soothing afternoon with light music on the sun loungers, have a drink in the evening out by the sundeck looking at the stars, having a cocktail from our well stocked bar and much more.

The White Villa offers currently six guest rooms, each has been designed to ensure that home comfort feeling with satellite television (offering channels in a variety of languages), radio, soft continental bedding, twin or double bed and private ensuite facilities.

A visit to The White Villa in Hurghada, is like visiting a piece of paradise.

www.thewhitevilla.com